CHURCH OF THE APOSTLES

FOURTH ANNUAL MEETING

Minutes taken on January 31, 2010

The Fourth Annual Meeting was called to order at 12:08 p.m. by Superintendent Mark Galloway.

Sixty three members of the Church of The Apostles were present.

Elder Nina Deuel led the group in prayer and Superintendent Galloway read the Necrology.

Treasurer Bob Bickerstaff Financial Report for 2009 and 2010 Budget:

Treasurer Bob Bickerstaff reviewed the 2009 Financial Summary Report. We began the year with $12,889.06 and ended 2009 with a balance of $32,129.72. The General Operating Fund started the year with a deficit of $7,101.35 and ended 2009 with a deficit of $227.08. A complete review of the breakdown of the 2009 budget was given, noting that it showed God at work in our midst.

Treasurer Bickerstaff reviewed the 2010 Operating Budget figures of a total income of $365,000.00 and expenditures of $364,739.00. The Treasurer pointed out two new line items for 2010:

Leadership/Continuing Education & Youth Minister Savings. The Russell Snow bequest in the amount of $85,240.49 was explained in detail as follows: 10% of the total bequest will be tithed to Outreach, $10,000.00 to be applied to the principal of our mortgage which will be refinanced at a lower rate, $45,000.00 will be used for the Youth Ministry Fund, $1,225.00 will be used to pay the sewer loan and the balance after any expenses to the Capital Reserve Savings Fund.

The Treasurer asked for questions on any of the items reviewed and thanked the parishioners for their attention.

Chairwoman Elect Beth Sexton Opened the Canterbury Mission Society Meeting at 12:35 p.m.

Bob Bickerstaff explained that Canterbury Mission Society is a separate corporation from Church of The Apostles and owns the Church property even though the mortgage is paid by Church of The Apostles. Plans are underway to transfer the title from Canterbury Mission Society to Church of The Apostles. The Treasurer also reviewed the Canterbury Mission Society 2009 Activities and Financial Report and stated that the Mission did not take in or spend much money. New funding may be required in the future.

Outgoing Chairman Harry Sacchetti:

Harry Sacchetti announced that Beth Sexton has been appointed Chairwoman of the Canterbury Mission Society as of January 31, 2010 and Donna Tyler and Diane Sacchetti have been appointed Directors. Both Harry Sacchetti and Beth Sexton praised Jodi Antonelli for her dedication, insight and wisdom during her term as Director. Beth Sexton praised Harry Sacchetti for his hard work and dedication during his term as Chairman.

Pastoral Assistant Roberta Tvenstrup:

Pastoral Assistant Tvenstrup gave all glory to God and praise for five years of continuous Christian based counseling and intervention. Pastoral Assistant Tvenstrup may be contacted either at home or through the Church office. Superintendent Galloway thanked Roberta for her invaluable behind the scenes service.

Youth Minister Roger Hall:

Reported that the Youth Group is great to work with and are willing to try new ideas. Lots of individual growth has taken place this year which will help to put the pieces together for the rest of their lives. They are all looking forward to their summer trip. Superintendent Galloway praised Roger and Cindy Hall for their many years of working with young people.

First Diaconal Minister Tom Bourn:

Stated that he was originally uncomfortable in his role and then realized that God does not want us to be comfortable. Tom said that it is his responsibility to move Evangelism along and is looking forward to what God will lead him into next.

Deacon Bill Sexton:

Stated that it is a pleasure to represent a caring and loving church while visiting the sick and shut-in members of the parish. Bill also commented that it is a blessing to witness 20 plus at the Men's Breakfast on Saturdays. Both food and discussion are wonderful and hopefully 2010 will be the same. Deacon Sexton also thanked the Elders and Deacons for their work in 2009.

Deacon Cathy Morgan:

Deacon Morgan reported that the Outreach Committee has been very busy. It is a program where we have actually touched people's lives not just given money. Deacon Morgan said God is talking to us every day and asked the congregation to listen to what our Lord is telling us to do.

Deacon Rob Geoffrey:

Deacon Geoffrey stated that God has given us a blessing in our property which is our home base of ministry and we must use it to reach out to the Christian community. Heaven will not have Temples or Church buildings, the Temple will be the body of Christ and we will be living stones as members. It is time to give God glory for his work in our Church.

Deacon Kathy Kettle:

Deacon Kettle thanked the congregation for their love and fellowship and thanked Barbara Bickerstaff and Barbara Battey for all their work. The Council was acknowledged for their one mission to share the Gospel. Deacon Kettle explained her job as Stewardship Minister, spoke about the Truth Project which will be a perpetual project and mentioned that our web site will be overhauled and a new pamphlet on our ministries is in the works.

Elder Emeritus Conrad Ruppert Jr:

Elder Emeritus Conrad spoke of a year of transition as he made the difficult decision to step down from active duty as a church Elder due to his busy work schedule. He is encouraged by the strength and growth of our Church and the way new people stand up and take charge in roles of leadership and said that God wants everyone to be actively involved.

Elder Nina Deuel:

Elder Deuel encouraged everyone to read the Bible and study the Word of God. Elder Deuel spoke about the various Bible study and prayer groups offered at Church of The Apostles and asked the congregation to pray for each other and for the Church.

Elder Chad Tvenstrup:

Elder Tvenstrup explained that he became the Ranking Elder when Rick Bonin resigned and stated that he is excited to serve in this new capacity. Elder Tvenstrup is encouraged by our spiritual growth and commitment and excited by the plethora of our outreach projects and lay ministry. Personal thanks were extended to the congregation and thanks were given to God for our Christian Education program and VBS volunteers. The congregation was asked to continue to pray for our leadership, Deacons and Elders during these trying times.

Superintendent Mark Galloway:

*Superintendent Galloway thanked everyone for attending and spoke about the Bonin family's departure from Church of The Apostles. Rick was a very faithful, invaluable and lovable member of the Church and the congregation was asked to pray that the Holy Spirit is in their lives.

*Due to Rick Bonin's departure there was an opening in the Eldership and Rob Geoffrey was elected to that position at the December Council Meeting.

- *As a result of Rob Geoffrey's Eldership election there is an opening in the Diaconate and the Council & congregation was asked to pray about that position.
- *Superintendent Galloway spoke about calling a Youth Minister to reach the young generation and asked the congregation for prayers concerning this position.
- *A Wellness Ministry staff position will be discussed at the next Council Meeting.
- *Announced that Mark Tellier began online seminary work at Trinity School for Ministry and stated that the next generation of ministers will come from our congregation.
- *Spoke to Bishop Don Harvey regarding the possibility of Church of The Apostles' affinity with the Anglican Church of North America and asked the congregation to pray about this.
- *Reported that the 9:30 a.m. service continues to grow.
- *Superintendent Galloway stated that we are in wonderful health compared to other congregations around us and we must continue to think out of the box.
- *Gratitude was extended for parishioner's constant support and love.

The Fourth Annual Meeting was adjourned at 1:58 p.m. with prayer by Elder Nina Deuel.

Respectfully submitted by,
Susan L. Farrell, Clerk

THE SUPERINTENDENT'S ANNUAL REPORT

It is with a deep sense of gratitude and joy that I present and commend to you the Annual Reports that collectively summarize our fifth year together in "the work of ministry" (Ephesians 4:12) here at the Church of The Apostles.

The year of Our Lord 2010 was certainly another twelve months of significant accomplishment in our proclamation and living out of the Gospel of Jesus Christ. Indeed, our Congregation is blessed by God's grace with a wealth of both talent and opportunity. Having said this, it is important, however, for us to always remember that such an abundant measure of God's grace squarely places great responsibility upon us to use such gifts to the best of our abilities as we continue to boldly and uncompromisingly share Christ's vision of hope with the world he came to redeem.

I truly believe that as orthodox Biblical Christians we are living at a point in the history of Western culture that is eerily reflective of the experience lived out by the early Church within context of the Roman Empire. Indeed, the pre-Nicene Church (that is, the Universal Church as she existed before the meeting of the Council of Nicaea in the year 325), saw rapid growth, expansion and an incredible depth of commitment to the Faith within Christian communities that had to fight daily for their existence in a pagan and threatening world. The earliest Christian Congregations were believers who, in the face of frustration and uncertainty (and yet with uncompromising integrity), met man's desire for a knowledge of the truth about God and of his remedy for the condition of man's fallen nature.

I further believe that the Church of The Apostles is truly committed (as are all the like-minded orthodox Biblical Congregations that we enjoy fellowship with) to preserving and proclaiming – even in the midst of a pagan and threatening culture – "the faith that was once for handed down to the saints" (Jude 3).

The fact is, historically speaking, we have, with meteoric speed, seen a change in American culture from being one that heartily embraced the Judaeo-Christian ethic as its own God-given heritage and national foundation; to that of a culture that is overtly hostile to the Gospel of Jesus Christ and the moral message it proclaims – all of which is essential to all that Christians believe.

I do believe that I can say with confidence that here at the Church of The Apostles, Coventry, Rhode Island, we are, in concert with the mission of the early Church, continuing to Obey, Follow and Bear Witness to Jesus Christ both through our fellowship in Word and Sacrament and in our Christian service together.

The strong moral leadership and the extent of dedicated worshippers, volunteers, teachers and other lay ministers in this place are inspiring to me and greatly help your Elders, Deacons and ever-loyal Church Staff to carry on the vision and mission of the Church of The Apostles. There is much frustration and uncertainty in the broken world today – but we know where the solution to such brokenness lies – in the proclamation of the saving Gospel of Jesus Christ through word and deed!

I am personally ever grateful for the support I know from all of you my beloved, as well as the exceptional professionalism and loyalty of the Elders, Deacons and members of the Church Staff. We are a people of grace and I commend all that we are and all that we are becoming to the Author of our Salvation!

I am, sincerely your servant in Christ,

The Reverend Mark R. Galloway

ELDER TVENSTRUP

“Not that I have already obtained this or am already perfect, but I press on to make it my own, because Christ Jesus has made me his own” – Philippians 3:12

Greetings in the Name of Jesus the Messiah:

This verse from St. Paul’s letter to the Church at Philippi is one of my favorites. In fact, Paul’s words here define the very essence of what it means to be a Christian. First, as followers of the Way, we must all (first and foremost) acknowledge our sinful nature. The natures of our flesh and of the Holy Spirit (within us) are constantly at war. Paul writes to the Romans: “For I delight in the law of God, in my inner being, but I see in my members another law waging war against the law of my mind and making me captive to the law of sin that dwells in my members” (7:22-23). Paul, perhaps better than anybody else, was well aware of his sin nature. He knew for a fact that, this side of glory, he would never be “already perfect”. This fact is precisely why repentance is at the forefront of anyone’s acceptance of Jesus Christ as Lord and Savior.

Second, Paul does not use his sin nature as an excuse for low expectations in the Christian walk. Paul, (again) better than anybody else in the New Testament, always maintained the standard at perfection. Why? Because it is the only standard that points to the one who came to save us! This fact is precisely why Paul writes that he always “presses on” to make perfection his own. He strives for perfection in the Christian walk because Jesus Christ has made him his own child. Paul also wrote to the Galatians: “But now that faith has come, we are no longer under a guardian, for in Christ Jesus you are all sons of God, through faith... God sent forth his Son, born of woman, born under the Law, to redeem those who were under the law, so that we might receive adoption as sons” (3:25-26; 4:4-5). You see, Paul genuinely believes that he is “Jesus’ own”. He understands that Jesus Christ died on the Cross, was resurrected on the third day, and ascended to sit at the Father’s right hand all so that we could be “his own”. And that, brothers and sisters, is the message of the Gospel! And that message is the very essence of the Christian walk. Do we expect perfection? Only from Jesus! Do we always strive to live as Christ did? Certainly. Every single day, every single hour. The apostle John writes in his first letter: “By this we may be sure that we are in [Christ]: whoever says he abides in him ought to walk in the same way in which he walked” (2:6). And in the face of all of our faults and failures (each day, even), there is always God’s wonderful and mind-boggling forgiveness. Praise God!

It is in light of all of these Scriptural truths that I write to you at the conclusion of the year of our Lord 2010. I am delighted to have served as your ranking Elder in this past year (which passed by so quickly, as they all seem to do). In 2010, our Elder ranks grew, as we ordained Elder Robert Geoffrey (our former Buildings and Grounds Deacon) to the Presbyterate. And I must say (on behalf of Superintendent Mark, Elder Nina, and myself), it has been an absolute pleasure working along-side Rob in this new capacity. Our Eldership here at the Church of The Apostles is so much more capable today than it was even one year ago, and much of that is due to what God has done in and through our brother Rob. We also give God praises and thanksgivings for his work in healing our sister Nina. It is only by his grace that Nina can now function again in Elder capacity here at the Church. And, as always, we are ever-grateful for her contributions to the ministry.

We continue to be committed to guarding the doctrine, discipline, and worship in this place. We are honored to serve you in this capacity. And (as always) we invite you to take advantage of the resources in education and pastoral counsel that you have here. Any one of us is willing and able to walk along-side of you and encourage you in your faith journey. And please know that we are continually praying for all of you. Likewise, this past year we have recommitted ourselves in the Eldership to continuing education. In addition to our regular personal time in God’s Word, we have been duly tackling systematic theologies, online courses, and liturgical and educational preparations in order to better equip us to serve you.

Our annual retreat this past August was perhaps the most invigorating thus far. As we preached and taught about in our Fall Series, we in the Eldership are convinced that inter-fellowship unity and discipleship must be a major goal in the Lord for us in the coming year. We are also pleased with the prayer efforts of our Wednesday night attendees thus far. And we encourage even more participation, such that all of our Congregants would understand that Wednesday Night Prayer Meetings should be as well attended as Worship services on Sundays. After all, is there anything more important (and relevant to unity and discipleship) than the Body of Christ committing itself to mid-week prayer together?

In this coming year we plan to revisit our policy handbook which (as the By-Laws were last year) are in need of some hefty revision. We are excited to offer a conference in February entitled A Day of Forgiveness, Reconciliation, and Healing. The Elders and staff ministers will be addressing these essential components of the Christian walk in light of living in our sinful world. This day will be a most valuable resource and an opportunity for all of our Congregants, so please mark your calendars and make every effort to fully participate. In the year of our Lord 2011 we are pleased to be (for the first time, it seems) serving along-side of a fully-staffed Diaconate (with Deacon Harry's Consecration on this past 9th of January). We would like to publically thank the Deacons for all of their hard work and dedication to a ministry of faithful service.

In all of these things, sisters and brothers in Christ, we commit ourselves to "pressing on" to make Christ and his life our own, because he has made us his own. And we invite you to join us. Thank you for all of your prayers and your sacrifices for the sake of the Gospel. Thank you for your commitment to reading and studying God's Word. Thank you for your own dedication to "pressing on" in the Christian journey. And let us all collectively make a commitment in the coming year to serve God in an even greater and more zealous capacity than we did in 2010.

And finally brothers and sisters, let us always keep in mind the words of St. Paul: "Now to him who is able to do far more abundantly than all that we ask or think, according to the power at work within us, to him be glory in the church and in Christ Jesus, throughout all generations, forever and ever. Amen" (Ephesians 3:20-21).

I am, respectfully yours in Christ,

Elder Chad Tvenstrup

ELDER DEUEL

The year 2010 has been an interesting year for me. First, our Wednesday Precept group did the Truth Project for our study in the Winter and Spring. Kathy Kettle was our leader and I believe we all got a lot from it. I still hear Dr. Taggetts' statement from the Bible where Jesus says to Pontius Pilate (John 18:37b) that He (Jesus) had come to bear witness to the Truth. It is such a profound statement and one to think about.

The Elders decided to start an evening Prayer Meeting on Wednesday evenings so our Wednesday prayer time at noon was discontinued. In our hearts we were praying for more of us to be praying as a church and this was certainly an answered prayer. I thank Beth Sexton and June Raffensperger for their faithful service in joining me for over four years in the ministry of prayer.

I have continued in the prayer ministry with my fellow Elders in praying individually with our congregation during communion on Sundays. It is such a blessing to be able to pray with you, and to be so trusted by all who would seek prayer. I firmly believe God is pleased when we come to Him in prayer and desire Him to be in our lives – trusting Him as we grow stronger in Him.

In the fall the Precept group started studying Matthew. The Gospels are awesome to study. However, I had to take a leave of absence to have my bladder removed due to cancer. Kathy Kettle and Cathy Morgan led the study while I was gone and I am very grateful for their leadership. This group of ladies finished Matthew part one in December.

I wish to thank all of you for your prayers and cards and visits while I was recovering from surgery. It was a difficult time, but I know that I am doing so well now because of all your love and support.

I am looking forward to a new year in the Lord.

Faithfully,
Nina Deuel
Elder

ELDER GEOFFREY

“I will praise the Lord with all my heart in the assembled congregation of the upright.

*Great are the works of the Lord,
to be treasured for all their delights.*

Majestic and glorious is your work, your wise design endures forever.

*You won renown for your wondrous deeds;
gracious and merciful is the Lord.*

You gave food to those who fear you, mindful of your covenant forever.

You showed powerful deeds to your people, giving them the lands of the nations.

*The works of your hands are right and true,
reliable are all your decrees.*

Established for ever and ever, to be observed with loyalty and care.

You sent deliverance to your people, ratified your covenant forever; holy and awesome is your name.

The fear of the Lord is the beginning of wisdom; prudent are all who live by it. Your praise endures forever.” (Psalm 111)

As the Family of God, the Bride of Christ, the priesthood of believers, the Communion of Saints, the hospital for the broken, the refuge for the lost and the light on a hill, the Church of Jesus Christ is alive in Coventry, Rhode Island. This is easy to see when we read and contemplate Psalm 111.

I see a picture of the Universal Church in the psalm, and the good news is that I also see a picture of Church of The Apostles. True, our church is not perfect, but that is so because it is comprised of people with a fallen nature, not because God’s template is faulty. But the very fact that we reflect Psalm 111 is encouraging. I am confident that this statement is true; let’s have a look in light of our experience of the past year.

Most would agree that the first thing that comes to mind when one mentions “church” is worship and praise (or I hope so). When I observe the congregation during the services, I’m struck by the authenticity of the praise, and it seems to extend into the lives of the baptized even outside the sanctuary as well. The saints appreciate the great things God has done in their lives and praise comes naturally. We treasure the great works of the Lord, and we are delighted to praise Him with all our hearts.

The ministry of the Eldership is largely one of prayer and study of the Word of God, to the end that His will for His people may be known and implemented. All of us seek out the Father’s will for our individual lives; church leadership must pray for revelation of His will for the congregation as a whole. It is, after all, His design, His plan for us. Indeed, Scripture is full of God’s majestic and glorious deeds; our very lives speak of His mercy and loving kindness. But obedience and submission on our part is necessary in order to tap into the full measure of Grace. Great news! Grace abounds in our Church.

The psalmist writes of manna given in the desert and of God's promise of provision. He delivered them from the Enemy. His Word and His statutes are worthy of reverent attention. The New Testament Church sees in this the Eucharistic Celebration and the promise of an inheritance in the Kingdom of God. The decrees of Jesus are that we should remember His death by our observance of his Last Supper and to baptize in the name of the Father, and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit.

I have witnessed a renewed embrace and ownership of the sacraments this year. Many of us grew up with a liturgical background, but few of us have had the understanding of the institutions that we have today, thanks to diligent exposition of God's Word, persistent demonstration of the conduit of grace in the context of our services, and greater participation of our people. The participation, in heart and mind, will never be complete, not in this life, but in this case more is better! The congregation's understanding of the Sacrament of Baptism and the Rite of Confirmation/Reception has advanced dramatically, but I believe we have work to do concerning the depth and majesty of the Lord's Supper.

The Lord has sent deliverance to His people, and His name is Jesus! I cannot think of anyone among us that is not cognizant of this Good News. Since the story of the Cross is central to the orthodox Christian faith, I fervently praise the Lord with all my heart for the engagement of the Gospel in our community. This is the work of the Holy Spirit, and awesome is His Name!

As it is written, "The fear of the Lord is the beginning of wisdom." First comes the desire for godly wisdom (remember submission and obedience?), second comes the realization that God's Word is wisdom. Finally, the Spirit teaches you to understand; and the prudent person will allow Holy Writ to rule his/her life. The engagement of the Word in our Body is one of our strong points. This is indeed a wonderful thing because knowledge of God's revelation to us is foundational to Christian life. The leadership at Church of The Apostles has been faithful in its commitment to Christian education from day one. This year has seen the perpetuation of some old favorites as well as the emergence of new bible studies. Some are new offerings, some are time-honored but are being conducted by new people. For those who belong to the Church of The Apostles family, there is "no excuse", as Paul wrote, for those who would deny the Lord's wise design. Great are the works of the Lord!

I would be remiss if I did not do diligence to the reality of unity among myself and my fellow elders. Subordinate only to my allegiance to God and my devotion to my wife, I cherish the honest and mutually loving relationship I have with each of them. Ministry can focus on ministry with everyone pulling at the oars, especially when your brother or sister won't hesitate to pull harder if ever you cannot. Gracious and merciful is the Lord.

I wish to thank my fellow elders, Mark Galloway, Chad Tvenstrup, Nina Deuel and Conrad Ruppert for their constant encouragement and support for their neophyte. Thanks also to our deacons, Tom Bourn, Bill Sexton, Cathy Morgan, Kathy Kettle and Harry Sacchetti for their tireless ministry to the Gospel. Thank you, Barbara Battey and Barbara Bickerstaff, your work makes my ministry not only easier, but possible. I am thankful for all the ministers and their devotion, especially Chris Lloyd, Roberta Tvenstrup, Roger Hall, Sharon Galloway, Marianne Salisbury, JoAnn Ruppert, Jim Quinn and Susan Farrell.

Thank you all for your prayers for myself and my family.

Most of all, I thank the Lord for Sharon, my "Proverbs 31" wife. God shows forth His glory in her, my faithful helpmate – "Many women have done excellently, but you surpass them all" (Proverbs 31:29).

"I will praise the Lord with all my heart, in the assembled congregation of the upright." (Psalm 111, vs.1)

Yours in Christ,

Rev. Robert J. Geoffrey

FIRST DIACONAL MINISTER

“Therefore go and make disciples of all nations, baptizing them in the name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit, and teaching them to obey everything I have commanded you. And surely I am with you always, to the very end of the age” (Matthew 28:19-20 NIV).

We have completed our first session in our series “Talking About Jesus,” and I have come away greatly enthused about efforts in our Church family to bring others to Christ. I was especially encouraged that so many people signed up for the series. I will be the first to admit that I have no special gift or charism for evangelism, so I too am learning along with the other participants.

Over the past year I have been impressed with how much members of our Church family have grown in their knowledge of Christ. When Elders have asked questions of the congregation, whether from the pulpit or in adult education, many have responded quickly and confidently with the correct answers.

Now that we are growing in our faith, the next step is to share our faith with the world. Not to say that evangelism is going to be easy, all of the Disciples gave up their lives spreading the Gospel to unbelievers. I don't anticipate that we will be asked to go that far for the sake of the Gospel, but we will have to give up a portion of our lives to effectively evangelize others. It will take a deliberate effort on all our parts to reach others outside our church family. Almost all of us can name persons in our own biological families that haven't heard or accepted the Gospel message. These very family members may be our most difficult challenge to overcome.

For those of us afraid to impose ourselves on others need to recognize that we are telling the Truth and we do not have to either apologize or be ashamed for that. We also need to recognize that we are only spokesmen for the Holy Spirit; we are not telling our story, but God's story and the Holy Spirit will guide us.

In Jesus' commission cited above, we are told to make disciples of all nations. It seems we have much work to do. I do enjoy a challenge and I expect to be held accountable; therefore, I would encourage all of you to keep asking me what I have done for Christ as you talk with me over the next year and beyond.

Servant Evangelism Deacon,

Tom Bourn
First Diaconal Minister

CONGREGATIONAL CARE MINISTER

Before I began to prepare this annual report for 2010, I re-read the reports for 2009. What a blessing it was to hear God's Word exclaimed over and over and to see God's Grace guiding the thoughts and actions of our leadership and many volunteers. I personally am in awe of what God is doing in our midst.

2010 was, once again, a busy year. Visiting the sick and shut-ins is a primary focus for me. I really cherish the time spent with our sisters and brothers, sharing our lives and most important, sharing God's gift of the Eucharist. The monthly men's breakfast continues to be a highlight of the month for me. Twenty or so men come together for food, fellowship and discussion. Some of the discussion topics for 2010 were Patience, Unlocking Your God Given Potential, Honesty, Lust and Prayer. I would be remiss if I didn't take this opportunity to thank the chefs who show up at 6 a.m. to prepare an always delicious and varied meal. We always have a number of men from other local churches attend which makes our time together even more of a blessing.

At this January's men's breakfast, Superintendent Mark was the discussion leader. Mark's topic was Making Resolutions. The bottom line (I believe) of this discussion time was that we can't resolve to do anything unless we are truthful with ourselves. Seems like a stretch from just making a simple resolution doesn't it. But when you think about it, you can connect the dots. I don't make new year's resolutions but I have made a commitment to read the Bible in its entirety this year. I'm following a daily outline that will take 365 days. So far so good. I'm really enjoying my early morning time in the Word.

I'm one of about twenty members who are participating in a six session course entitled "Talking About Jesus". For us who may have difficulty sharing our faith, this course will equip us to better share the Gospel and tell our story. We've heard it said more than once that although not all of us have the spiritual gift of evangelism, we all have a story and we all have the Holy Spirit as a Helper.

At the leadership retreat in August, we committed our efforts primarily to three areas; prayer, unity and discipleship. Steps have been taken to achieve these goals such as changes in the Sunday morning worship schedule, a mid-week evening prayer/teaching service and offerings of short courses to increase our knowledge of scripture and to help us share our faith. Again, as last year, I urge you, my brothers and sisters in Christ, to take advantage of these opportunities for personal growth and as a laborer of the harvest.

"For this reason I kneel before the Father, from whom his whole family in heaven and on earth derives its name. I pray that out of his glorious riches he may strengthen you with power through his Spirit in your inner being, so that Christ may dwell in your hearts through faith. And I pray that you, being rooted and established in love, may have power, together with all the saints, to grasp how wide and long and high and deep is the love of Christ, and to know this love that surpasses knowledge—that you may be filled to the measure of all the fullness of God." (Ephesians 3:14-19)

In Christ's Holy Name,

Deacon Bill Sexton
Congregational Care Minister

OUTREACH MINISTER

My Dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ,

“And seeing the multitudes, He felt compassion for them, because they were distressed and downcast like sheep without a shepherd. Then He said to His disciples, ‘The harvest is plentiful, but the workers are few. Therefore beseech the Lord of the harvest to send out workers into His harvest... These twelve Jesus sent out after instructing them’” (Matthew 9:36-38; 10:5).

Although it may seem curious that Jesus asked his disciples to pray to the Lord of the harvest to send out workers into His harvest just before he sent them out, what it says to me is that everyone we need for the harvest is already here! And not only are the workers here, but so too are the gifts. “And since we have gifts that differ according to the grace given to us, let each exercise them accordingly” (Romans 12:6).

We are the workers with gifts so graciously given us for the work of ministry at Church of The Apostles and throughout our community. Through God’s grace and your openness to God’s call, wonderful ministries flow out of this church on a regular basis touching the lives of people in our own church and people we may never meet. Over the years it has been so exciting for me to see God’s Spirit at work here, to know that His promises are true, and to realize that we are part of His plan; a link in the chain that began before time and that will continue until His coming again.

United In Faith, a major outreach endeavor now in its fifth year, is a ministry that unites the body of Christ, providing many opportunities throughout the year, for the churches in the Pawtuxet Valley to work together, side by side, and to fellowship in Word and music. Events such as the Progressive Dinner on Fairview, summer outdoor lawn concerts, the Outdoor Festival of Word and Music on Labor Day weekend and Ring in the New Year “entreat the Holy Spirit to bear fruit among us, that all may know we are Christians by our love for Jesus Christ and for one another.” (UIF Mission Statement) “And they were continually devoting themselves to the apostles’ teaching and to fellowship... And the Lord was adding to their number day by day those who were being saved,” (Acts 2:42, 47).

Our newest ministry offers refreshment for body and soul to the residents of the Crossroads Family Center when we visit once a month, with home made snacks and fun family projects, sharing the message of Christ’s love. The Lord continues to bless us with the ministries of giving blood through quarterly blood drives; providing stuffed backpacks for less fortunate children heading back to school in the fall; lovingly knitted warm hats, scarves and mittens for children and adults, distributed through the Artic Mission and Crossroads; the celebration of life and service for our veterans and members of the armed forces. Loaves & Fishes continues to provide home-cooked meals for our church family members when needed; Angel Wings provides rides for church members who cannot drive; food baskets were made available at Thanksgiving, and toys, volunteers and financial assistance were provided to the Artic Mission Toy Days where over 300 children were blessed.

“Beseech the Lord of the harvest to send out workers into His harvest,” that we may be ready for the call. And, as we go forth, may it not be the deeds that we focus on but sharing the gift of Christ’s love, with compassion. The second commandment is clear, “‘You shall love your neighbor as yourself.’ There is no other commandment greater than these... (Mark 12: 30-31).

May the grace of the Lord Jesus Christ be with your spirit! (Philippians 4:23)

It is an honor and blessing to serve you,

Cathy Morgan
Outreach Minister

STEWARDSHIP DIACONAL MINISTER

“As each has received a gift, use it to serve each other, as good stewards of God’s varied grace” (1Peter 4:10).

This verse from the apostle Peter comes to mind when I think of our stewardship role at Church of The Apostles. Whatever gift we have is a gift from God and we are to manage everything that God has given us to serve each other. God has truly blessed Church of The Apostles and it is with great joy that I present this stewardship report. As you read through the Annual Report it becomes evident that we are recipients of many blessings. Our giving is on an upward trend and many people have stepped forward in the spirit of fellowship and love to help in the many different ministries. Throughout the 2010 Annual Report you can see that the various gifts that have been entrusted to the members of Church of The Apostles have been used to show stewardship in action.

I would like to thank the four members of our congregation who gave testimonies on what stewardship meant to them. Barbara Battey, Don Pillsbury, Cindy Hall and Chris Lloyd shared with the congregation what it means to live out a life of faith and the stories that they told point to lives full of gratitude and trust for our Sovereign Lord.

Good Stewardship of the treasures that are given to Church of The Apostles is clearly shown in the financial section of this Annual Report. When you look at the Treasurer’s report you can’t help but notice the completeness of the information. As you absorb the data you should know that our Treasurer Bob Bickerstaff strives to keep the reporting of income and expenses detailed and transparent.

There are so many opportunities to share the gifts of time and talent at Church of The Apostles and many of you give selflessly and abundantly. We are people who know we have been blessed by God to share blessings and the multitude of ministries that are available give our members a chance to bring forth love and glory to God. I would like to thank Christ Lloyd for developing a booklet detailing the various ministries and in helping to organize the ministry fair.

This congregation is filled with people full of enthusiasm and love for the gospel and I am thankful, honored and blessed for the opportunity to serve the members of Church of The Apostles. As we continue to grow in the Word and remember the ultimate sacrifice of His son Jesus Christ, may the love that we have for Our Lord show clearly in every aspect of our life.

Respectfully yours in Christ,

Deacon Kathleen Kettle

BUILDINGS AND GROUNDS DIACONAL MINISTER

“Why do you call me, ‘Lord, Lord,’ and do not do what I say? As for everyone who comes to me and hears my words and puts them into practice, I will show you what they are like. They are like a man building a house, who dug down deep and laid the foundation on rock. When a flood came, the torrent struck that house but could not shake it, because it was well built. But the one who hears my words and does not put them into practice is like a man who built a house on the ground without a foundation. The moment the torrent struck that house, it collapsed and its destruction was complete” (Luke 6:46-49).

The Church of The Apostles began five years ago with a strong biblical foundation, one that is based on the truth of His Word. Jesus tells us in Luke 6:46 that those who come and hear my words and put them in practice are like a man who lays down a deep foundation where it remains unshaken. Just as the church body needs a firm footing to remain stable, so does its physical structure (building).

I was blessed and humbled last May when I was asked to serve as your Acting Buildings and Grounds Minister. It seemed a daunting task as I was following in the footsteps of two predecessors, John Adams and now Elder Rob Geoffrey, who both served the ministry in exemplary fashion. They had laid a strong foundation on which I was able to build upon.

The first task undertaken was a new office for the Elders. Upon consulting with the Buildings and Grounds committee it was decided to construct the new office in the education wing. The vast knowledge and construction skills of Mark Tellier, Rob Geoffrey, John Adams, and Jim Quinn transformed plans into reality. Thank you and congratulations gentlemen for the many hours you put into the project and for the results – a well constructed and functional workspace.

My familiarity with the Church building spans the last 25 years. In that that amount of time can lead to complacency with the status quo, I opted to view the building through the eyes of a visitor. I saw what appeared to be decades’ worth of furniture and accessories that had accumulated and landed in the narthex and sanctuary. From a stewardship, outreach and evangelism stand point, the building needed a little sprucing up. After meeting with Superintendent Galloway and sharing ideas, work started to the Church’s interior into one more conducive to worship.

Cleaning, clearing out and refreshing took place so that upon approaching and entering the sanctuary, one is able to prepare for and focus on the liturgy. The culmination of the project was the repainting of the sanctuary in December. Other projects included a new floor in the hallway between the church hall and the narthex, the refinishing of all the floors in the original building, the music office was refurbished and many closets were cleaned out and reconfigured to maximize space.

We said goodbye to our former sexton, Ray Martin, this past summer after 20 years of service. It was sad to see Ray leave, but also a pleasure having known him for such a long time. Thank you Ray for your dedication and behind the scenes work that was never unnoticed and was most definitely appreciated. Towards the end of 2010 it was a pleasure to have Mike Edwards come onboard as our new sexton and I look forward to working with him. I would also like to take the time to thank Jim Quinn who has been right there to make my ideas work this past year. I know I drove him a little crazy sometimes, yet Jim is always ready, willing, creative and meticulous about getting the job done.

Thanks also to Barbara Battey who is on the front lines dealing with contractors, groups using our facilities and finding out vital information to help me do my ministry better. Many thanks also go to Barbara Bickerstaff who skillfully edits my articles making my words legible.

I would also like to thank the Buildings and Grounds committee members for their exceptional work this past year. John Adams, Barbara Battey, Bob Bickerstaff, Rob Geoffrey, Dewayne Jacobs, Jim Quinn, Bob Singleton, Mark Tellier and Donna Thompson are a talented, energetic and results-oriented group.

I express gratitude to all those who have come forward over the past year to volunteer for work parties and for the many projects that have taken place. Please consider yourselves essential to the continued efforts to keep Church of The Apostles a wonderful and welcoming place to worship.

Finally I would like to thank by best friend and godly wife, Dianne who has supported me from my first day in this new ministry. She has been a close adviser to me and sometimes even talked me down from some of my ideas; she keeps me on track.

Our joint efforts demonstrate our commitment to stewardship of what God has entrusted to us here on Fairview Avenue. We are blessed to have this building and grounds for our use and the ability to share it with those such as Pass it On, the Boy Scouts and United In Faith. It is indeed a tool for the evangelization of those in our community and beyond.

It is my hope to take a proactive approach to maintain our building and grounds and to show good stewardship by addressing needs before we are faced with costly repairs. I am grateful for the opportunity to serve in this capacity and thank the entire congregation for its support and encouragement.

We indeed have a strong foundation at the Church of The Apostles, for we are built upon His Word, His truth and service for His glory.

Your Servant in Christ,

Deacon Harry E. Sacchetti
Buildings and Grounds Minister

CHURCH ADMINISTRATOR

*Blessed Lord, who caused all holy Scripture to be written for our learning:
Grant us so to hear them, read, mark, learn, and inwardly digest them, that we may embrace and ever hold fast the blessed hope of everlasting life, which you have given us in our Savior Jesus Christ;
who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God,
for ever and ever. Amen*

As I gathered Annual Reports for our Fifth Annual Meeting I could not help but notice that the writers of these reports are focusing more on evangelism, service, discipleship and our mission, to Obey, Follow and to Bear Witness to Jesus Christ. The principles are clear “Sanctify them by the truth; your word is truth” (John 17:17). If you read our Concluding Statement in our Constitution and Bylaws (pg. 33) we are reminded of the need of salvation of our souls is to be found in a place where the pure Word of God is preached [and reading further in that same paragraph] the importance of (re) organization of our ecclesial life here at the Church of The Apostles. Our leadership is most definitely planting seeds, seeds that will take root only in the pure Word of God that we hear every week in our church.

My brothers and sisters our leadership had a lot of work on their hands five years ago especially our Superintendent. In 2004 many people who drove by our church thought that we took down many trees on our church property (previously called Church of St. Andrew & St. Philip) but more correctly we thinned out a lot of our dead branches on our remaining trees which from the road opened a clear view of our church. It was around that same time that the true definition of tradition in the church was made clear to us. For many of us we began to open our eyes and ears to a true understanding of God’s Word. You could say that we have a clearer view inside our church walls of our commitment as followers and students in learning God’s holy Word.

As your Administrator and Financial Secretary I can feel my heart changing in my view of my daily task. My daily task does not seem like a job that needs to be finished but more like a ministry that needs to be fulfilled, and thanking God daily for the gift of work in the church that is set before me. I thank God for the people in our membership that seeks a home (God’s church) where they feel ministered to in a true Christian congregation of believers. As the church’s Financial Secretary I see the changes in the way giving has increased which reveals to me our commitment to the Lord, giving back what is given by Him and the trust in our church leaders to be good stewards of those gifts.

The first thing I try to do on Monday mornings is revise the weekly prayer list. I feel the importance of all those who need our prayers and all those who entrust me with that part of my ministry. After I revise that list, and before I e-mail and send out others in posted mail, I search for a prayer (in prayer) that I may pass along with the prayer list. Believe me this can only happen by the Holy Spirit and may take more time one week than others. But in the end the prayer is of one praising God for the gifts He has given us, and praying for His guidance in serving Him faithfully so we may walk in the Light of His Son Jesus Christ.

I pray that the challenges in my ministry as well as all those here at the church are handled with God’s love and direction, and I also pray that all our days of success are days that brings us stronger together in our commitment to Obey, Follow and to Bear Witness to Jesus Christ as a disciple in the ministry of God’s church. And I pray that we may embrace the scripture daily, digesting every word with new found hope.

Your sister In Christ,

Barbara Battey
Church Administrator and Financial Secretary

COMMUNICATIONS OFFICER

“You will show me the path of life.”
(Psalm 16:11)

One of my favorite psalms is Psalm 16. The psalmist begins the song by boldly proclaiming in whom he puts his trust: “Protect me, O God, for I take refuge in you; I have said to the LORD, ‘You are my Lord, my good above all other’” (Psalm 16:1). He quickly asserts his reasoning for following the LORD: “those who run after other gods shall have their troubles multiplied” (v. 3). Then in each successive verse the writer affirms his relationship with the LORD. “O LORD, you are my portion and my cup; it is you who uphold my lot” (v. 5). “I will bless the LORD who gives me counsel; my heart teaches me, night after night” (v. 7). “My heart, therefore, is glad, and my spirit rejoices; my body also shall rest in hope” (v. 9). But it is verse 11 that speaks to me the most clearly: “You will show me the path of life; in your presence there is fullness of joy, and in your right hand are pleasures for evermore.” If we seek the Lord’s will for our lives through prayer and daily devotion and affirm our relationship with him by word and deed, he will guide us on our journey along the pathways of life. Best of all, “in his presence there is fullness of joy” and “pleasures for evermore.” What could be better than that?

When seeking direction in times of doubt or indecision, in and out of the workplace, I often return to verse 11 of this Psalm: “show me the path of life.” Seeking God’s will for our communications must be the lifeline of the communication process. “The word that goes forth from my mouth; it will not return to me empty” (Isaiah 55:11). When our publications are motivated by something other than God’s Word and our ministries and activities by something other than his will, we become like “those who run after other gods (who) shall have their troubles multiplied.”

This past June we introduced the ApostlesJournal. This new publication, which had been in the planning for nearly a year, was designed by the Board of Elders of the Church of The Apostles to replace the former publication that was known in our Congregation (and our predecessor body) as The Messenger. The ApostlesJournal is a theological and pastoral journal that is written by the Elders and will be published four to six times a year. Church Notes continues to be the primary platform for the Diakonate. As our ministries and outreach into the community continue to grow, so does the volume of information in this publication. Each edition (a record thirteen in 2010!) was jam-packed with “news, events and notes of interest.” This is truly a testament to the work of the Holy Spirit in this place and I am thrilled by the challenge of making all the information fit into this relatively small publication. This year I was also honored to work with Deacon Kathy Kettle, Erin Swanson, Barbara Battey and a professional web designer on the development of our new website. This new site (www.apostlesri.org) has an audio page of sermons and teachings, as well as links to all our publications and foundational documents. If you have not visited the site, we invite you to do so.

As always, so much of the production work that comes out of the office is accomplished through the efforts of many hands. Thank you to my friend and coworker (the other) Barbara and the office volunteers who “pitch-in” each week to get the work done. I am confident that you join with me in believing that we are always called to be ever mindful that “whatever you (we) do, in word or deed, do everything in the name of the Lord Jesus, giving thanks to God the Father through him” (Colossians 3:17).

Your sister in Christ,

Barbara Bickerstaff

CHRISTIAN EDUCATION

I want to begin this report by once again thanking all of you who have made me feel so welcome during the last 6 months as I've begun this journey with you at Church of The Apostles. It truly has been a blessing to be part of this community.

One of the many strengths of Church of The Apostles is its steadfast commitment to sound Biblical preaching and teaching, and this commitment is reflected in the education programs we offer on a weekly basis. In Acts 2:42 we read that members first church "devoted themselves to the apostles' teaching and fellowship, sharing in the Lord's Supper and in prayer." We have seen all of these things in abundance in the life of the church here and for that we are all richly blessed.

2010 brought about a few changes at Church of The Apostles, including my own entrance as Minister of Christian Education here as well as changes to the Sunday morning schedule. The Sunday following Labor Day Weekend we began a new schedule. The two Sunday morning services now begin at 8 and 10:30 and our Christian Education offerings in between the two services beginning at 9:15. This has proven to be quite a beneficial change as it has served as a bridge between the two services and offered more flexibility for parents and teachers alike.

Aside from the time change, the 2010 Christian Education programs themselves have remained relatively unchanged from the previous year. The younger children in the Little Lights and Followers classrooms continue to learn about heroes of the faith and traditional Bible stories (utilizing the three year curriculum designed by Karen Welsler). The Ambassadors class has been learning about what we believe as Anglican Christians utilizing Bible memorization and the study of Scripture as it relates to topics such as the Holy Trinity and the Creeds. We have added a new teacher to the Workers classroom, Duenna Karner, and together she and Roger Hall have been leading studies on both the Old and New Testaments and their meaning for us today. The Disciples classroom has been engaged in a curriculum based on John Paul II's Theology of The Body, discussing issues ranging from sexuality to marriage from a Biblical perspective. We also offer a Nursery and Children's Chapel program led faithfully by Debbie Adams and Donna Thompson.

One of the things that became increasingly apparent to me from the beginning of my ministry here is that Church of The Apostles is richly blessed with a group of hard working people fully dedicated to providing sound Christian Education to our children. I would like to take this time to thank all of the teachers who have dedicated so much of their time and talent to the Christian Education program. We are seeing God's light shine in these children thanks to your efforts.

In addition to the children's programs, our Christian Education program includes adult education on Sunday mornings, a Wednesday evening prayer and teaching series, the Joyful Women Bible Study on Saturday mornings led by Barbara Bickerstaff, and a Precepts Bible study on the second, third, and fourth Wednesday of each month. We are also currently offering The Truth Project on Tuesday evenings, and Deacon Tom Bourn is offering a class on Talking about Jesus every other Thursday.

This Advent and Christmas season we once again supported the Toy Days outreach program facilitated by the Artic Mission. As a church we donated a carloads worth of toys, bottled water and baked goods to the program, and many of us volunteered at Artic Mission during the event. In addition, this year Church of The Apostles has adopted an orphan from Haiti named Laura through Monadnock Bible Conference's Child Sponsorship Program. The Christian Education program participated in these outreach programs with the goal to instill in all our children the value of being good stewards of all that God has given us. Thank you to all who have participated in any way in these programs as we have in a small way worked to express Christ's love to the world.

We were blessed this year to hold a Christmas Pageant on December 18th in which all the children in the Sunday School program at Church of The Apostles had the opportunity to participate in the retelling of the Nativity story. Thank you to all of the many, many people who volunteered to help with everything from costumes to procuring props. A fun time was had by all and I hope that this tradition continues next Christmas Season.

As we move forward in this new year, I would encourage all of you to continue to diligently read and study God's Word. The writer of the letter to the Hebrews describes God's Word as being "full of living power" (4:12); power to heal and transform us into being more like Christ in all we do. Let us continue, then, to "let the words of Christ, in all their richness, live in our hearts and make us wise" (Colossians 3:16).

Again, I am grateful for the time I have spent at Church of The Apostles thus far. It is been a blessing getting to know each and every one of you and I hope to continue to do so in the coming months. Let us go forward now rejoicing in what the Lord has accomplished in and through us in 2010 with the expectation that He will do even greater things at Church of The Apostles in 2011.

Your brother and fellow servant in Christ,

Chris Lloyd
Minister of Christian Education

PASTORAL ASSISTANT

I begin this report with heartfelt thanks as I continue to serve you in my 6th year of ministry as your Pastoral Assistant. I praise God that you have trusted in me to journey with you in so many ways; as your counselor, confidant, mediator, advocate, and resource provider. I give God all the glory for allowing me to serve you in the power of his Spirit. The direction and hope for my ministry is to continue to provide you with sound biblical counseling in all areas. This promise that I make to you is much easier said than done (as I am sure you know). In the world today, it is most often the case that when life happens and things are not the way that we want them to be, we often look to others for blame. In our pride, we believe that our brokenness is not our fault. We think that our problems are outside of the realm of our control. But is that really a Biblical way to approach our lives?

Contrary to our sinful nature, the Scriptures are quite clear in revealing to us that, although a specific event may be outside of our control, how we handle this event and the example we witness to our broken world is not! God commands of us to “love the Lord your God with all your heart, with all your soul, and with all your strength” (Deuteronomy 6:5). In doing so, we must put all of our trust in His Word for the answers to our trials and tribulations. “Trust in the Lord with all your heart, and lean not on your own understanding; in all your ways acknowledge Him, and He shall direct your paths” (Proverbs 3:5, 6). Every Christian knows that God’s way is not the easiest way; but I can assure you this: it is the ONLY WAY! It is through our obedience to his Word that we will grow in our walk with the one, true and living God. The closer we are to Him the stronger we become in fighting the attacks of the devil. No matter what the circumstance is, my message to you will always be one of hope; through Jesus’ death on the cross. The author of the letter to the Hebrews assures us that “this hope [in the cross of Christ] we have as an anchor of [our souls]...” (Hebrews 6:19).

I have recently begun a 16 month Nouthetic Counseling course. Nouthetic counseling involves one Christian offering scriptural counsel to another Christian regarding how Christ can change his or her life to be more Christ-like (Jay Adams). Nouthetic counseling consists of lovingly confronting people out of deep concern in order to help them make those changes that God requires. This course will surely provide me with a much deeper understanding of how to utilize His word in addressing your personal needs. I look forward to journeying with you as we explore what the Bible says about your circumstances.

I have continued to work collaboratively with many wonderful people in the implementation of and planning for our HOLY COUPLES ministry, as it begins its 5th year. The HOLY COUPLES group began in 2005 with 9 Christian (married) couples and today it continues to grow with over 25 Christian couples participating. We continue to offer three separate groups meeting simultaneously in various homes one Saturday evening per month. The same couples remain together for approximately 5 months before our groups are reconfigured into three new groups; allowing for fellowship with other couples involved in the ministry. There are three couples, one in each group, designated as the group leaders for their group. I want to personally thank our group leaders, Elder Rob and wife Sharon Geoffrey and Deacon Tom and wife Barbara Bourn, for their time and energy in this ministry. Our couples time spent together each month begins with appetizers and fellowship, then on to our group program (video or audio, prayer, and discussion), and ends with dessert (and a lot of laughter). Strengthening our marriages through his teachings and following his instructions for marriage provides us with the necessary tools to enriching our Christian marriages.

The series, discussions, and time spent together, has benefitted each of our marriages beyond expectation. We have been utilizing a wonderful video series entitled “Love & Respect” for the past 10 months. Chad and I have begun our exploration of the resources available to our groups once we have completed the “Love & Respect” series.

Throughout 2011, I will continue to meet with those within the body in need of my services. I am honored to walk along side of you in your time of need in any situation that you need me. I praise God for all of the wonderful blessings in our midst, and I commit myself to another year in your service. Thank you for all of your prayers for me and my family. May God's blessings be upon all of you in the year of our Lord 2011.

I am graciously yours in Christ's Holy Name,

Roberta L. Tvenstrup, LICSW
Pastoral Assistant

YOUTH GROUP MINISTER

JAMIM' YOUTH GROUP

Our JAMIM' 2009-2010 calendar was packed with meetings, events, and fundraisers. Our biweekly Friday night meetings were filled with games, discussion topics and lots of pizza, soda and ice cream! We are very grateful for the church's strong support of our many fundraisers which support our annual mission trip. We would like to thank Harry Sacchetti for his patience and guidance in organizing every successful flower sales for Valentine's Day, Easter and Mother's Day. Additional funds were raised through car washes, M&M fundraisers and a teen auction. One of the highlights of this year was the strong bonds that continue to be developed and strengthened within our group as we work together. The growth and accomplishments of the youth at Church of The Apostles are a credit to their parents, our Christian Education program and all those who influence their lives.

The capstone event of 2010 was our Summer Mission trip to Bay City, MI., on July 17-24, 2010. Thirteen teens and adult leaders from Church of The Apostles spent a week working with other youth groups from all over the country serving the needy. Our teens and leaders served at nursing homes, inner city youth camps, food pantries, cleaning houses, mowing cemeteries, weeding community food gardens, and painting older homes & churches. Group Work Camps provided both morning and evening programs which included singing, games, skits and a message that was very relevant to teens today. Each evening we had devotions with our youth group which gave us an opportunity to talk about what we had learned. We worked hard, expanded our horizons and learned more about how God would have us to serve. Our teens comment each year that this experience is the highlight of their summer. They continue to grow in God's love and exemplify the true meaning of a servant's heart.

We praise God for all that He has done for our youth group this year! We want to thank all of you for your steadfast support of our teens! We would especially like to thank Donna Stomberg for continuing to serve with us as an adult youth group leader and as a missions trip leader! And, of course, we want to thank every one of our truly AWESOME teens!

In Christ,

Roger C. Hall
Youth Group Minister

HEALTH & WELLNESS MINISTER

Caring for all God's people is a part of the Church's mission and of its understanding of the Christian Gospel. The mission of the Health and Wellness Ministry is to promote positive lifestyles by supporting members of the congregation in caring for their spiritual, physical, emotional, and social needs. Since the inception of this ministry we have been blessed with individuals committed to caring for the wholistic need of the congregants. This has been done by actively engaging members in health promotion, health education, and health prevention activities to ensure that they are kept whole, in mind, body, and spirit.

It is exciting what God is doing in our midst. Office hours are now available on Monday afternoon or by appointment. We have been given an awesome space in the church hall to provide you with health education and health promotion literature. This ministry currently meets monthly, provides monthly blood pressure screenings, publishes monthly in Church Notes, and sponsors a monthly support group for caregivers. We have sponsored two congregational-wide initiatives, "Get My People Going" and currently "Racing Across America."

Our goal as we move forward this year is to address health promotion and health education around areas of chronic disease, nutrition, and exercise. We are currently in the process of developing a "health care management system" that looks to address the specific needs of our seniors within the congregation. The goal of the "health care management system" is to respond to their needs, fill the gaps, and serve as that partner to support the community-based system of care. With the coming of spring we will be planning health promotion activities for men and women's health, address concerns and issues of our adolescents, and provide family and community education programs such as CPR/AED/First Aid and a health and wellness fair.

As we move forward in faith, I would like to invite any member who is interested in this ministry to speak to myself or any other current health and wellness member: Kathy Kettle, Jodi Antonelli, JoAnn Ruppert, Debbie Adams, Cindy Hall, Beth Sexton, Karen Gudas, Jo Ann Colella, and Roberta Tvenstrup. It is exciting to realize that we can focus on health promotion and disease prevention and the intentional care of the spirit within the context of our faith community's values, beliefs, and faith practices.

Sharon Galloway, RN, MED, MSN

Health & Wellness Minister

ORGANIST AND MUSIC DIRECTOR

The Music Ministry here at the Church of The Apostles continues to glorify God through the medium of music. We welcome other participants with the appropriate talents to the various programs.

The Men's Chorus has been increasing in numbers throughout the past year. They have sung at numerous Sunday Services, and at Easter, Christmas Eve, and the Veterans Program. Rehearsals are held on Sundays following the 10:30 a.m. Holy Eucharist Service. If you are interested in joining, contact Ed Farrell who does a great job of handling all the details for this group.

We continue to enjoy the inspirational music provided by the members of the Praise Band. David Swann, the Director, and the Band Members devote their time and talent to be ready to participate in various Services and events. I particularly appreciate this group as they provide your music when I take a vacation.

The Handbell Choir has again had a busy year ringing at many Services, plus taking their program to nursing homes, assisted living facilities, and other churches and organizations. Ringers need not be able to read music. They only need to be able to keep time and follow direction. Rehearsals are largely held on Monday evenings. If you are interested in becoming a ringer, contact the organist for a current rehearsal schedule.

At various times, we have enjoyed vocal solos by Sarah Bethel and Roger Hall. It is always a pleasure for me to work with them.

Harrison Smiley and Sara Oliveira bring their instruments and talents to the Sunday's Family Service at 10:30 a.m. We are looking to enlarge this group in the near future. We have recently obtained our Celebration Hymnal transposed for Bb and Eb instruments, with other keys available to us. Therefore, if you play an instrument, come join us on Sunday morning.

In September 2010, we began to have music at the 8:00 a.m. Sunday Service. Many thanks to those who have participated in the teams when I have not been present.

In closing I wish to express my thanks and appreciation to everyone who has participated in making a joyful sound unto the Lord here at the Church of The Apostles.

Respectfully submitted,

Marianne H. Salisbury
Organist & Music Director

SACRISTY MINISTER

Altar Guild

The mission of the Altar Guild is to prepare the Lord's Table each week with care and reverence. Here at The Church of The Apostles, we are blessed to have a wonderful group of dedicated women who serve on the Altar Guild. I thank them for their faithfulness and commitment to this ministry. The Altar Guild consists of four teams who take responsibility for all the services of a given week on a rotating basis.

In 2010, we were able to purchase new white hangings for the church. The white hangings were the last set that required replacement, so we will not be incurring that expense again for some time. We also replaced several of the small linens that are used on the altar.

We had a church cleaning day in September, and many guild members participated, as well as several church members who volunteered their time and cleaning abilities. Many guild members and non members offered their assistance as we decorated the church for Easter and Christmas. It is truly a blessing to have so many people willing to help with these projects.

One of our members, Bert Cagle, retired in December, after many years of faithful service to the Altar Guild.

The Altar Guild always welcomes new members. If you would like to serve the Lord in this ministry, please see the Sacristy Minister, JoAnn Ruppert.

Flower Guild

The mission of the Flower Guild is to provide floral arrangements each Sunday, as well as to work with the Altar Guild to prepare the church for the great celebrations of Christmas and Easter.

We operate on a rotating schedule, with each member taking responsibility for procuring and arranging the flowers for a particular week. We have used flowers from various local stores/shops as well as supplementing from our own gardens. Several members have spent extra hours making special floral arrangements at Christmas and Easter time.

I thank all the members of the guild for their participation and commitment to this ministry. Each week I look forward to see the artistry and creativity that each one brings forth in their service to the church. I am blessed by your dedication and willingness to serve.

Respectfully submitted,

JoAnn Ruppert
Sacristy Minister

TREASURER'S REPORT

God has continued to bless us with favorable finances at Church of The Apostles. The operating income for 2010 was $345,187.43, and the operating expenses totaled $348,798.98. We also received expense reimbursements of $4,191.67, resulting in a budget surplus of $580.12. Since we began the 2010 year with a General Fund deficit of $227.08 carried forward from previous years, we are starting 2011 with a budget surplus of $353.04. I would also like to highlight the fact that our income from weekly offerings and pledges in 2010 totaled $320,665.88, an increase of 5.5 percent over the previous year. Thank you for your faithful giving, and praise God for His faithfulness to us!

The overall financial picture of Church of The Apostles was significantly enhanced in 2010 through a bequest of $85,250.15 from the estate of Russell Snow (who died in May 2006). The first thing I would like to note is that none of the money from the bequest was used for normal operating expenses. Instead, ten percent of the total was allocated to our Outreach Fund, and more than 80 percent of the remaining balance was transferred into our savings funds for new ministries and for future capital expenditures. The rest of the money was used to make extra principal payments on our mortgage, to cover the fees involved in refinancing the mortgage to a lower interest rate, to pay off a long-term sewer loan, and to construct and furnish our new Elders' office.

The Operating Budget for 2011 anticipates total budget income of $369,000.00 and total budget expenditures of $379,308.00, with the tentative deficit being covered by any reimbursements received and by a withdrawal from the New Ministries Fund to help pay the salary of our Christian Education Minister. This budget was approved by the Church Council in December 2010, based on a budget proposal prepared by a Finance Committee consisting of Superintendent Galloway, Treasurer Bob Bickerstaff, Elder Chad Tvenstrup, Archdeacon Tom Bourn, Deacon Kathy Kettle, Financial Secretary Barbara Battey, and Active Members Beverly Brown and Roy Greene.

As always, I want to acknowledge and thank Barbara Battey, our Church Administrator and Financial Secretary, for her work in managing the day-to-day finances of Church of The Apostles. In her duties as bookkeeper and financial records custodian, she diligently maintains our financial records and provides me with the detailed information I need in order to report the status of the church's finances to the Church Council and the Congregation. Thank you Barbara!

I would also like to thank our Sunday counters, especially our lead counter Sue Clarke and our substitute lead counter Joan Clarke. Our other counters are Beverly Brown, Dale Famiglietti, Linda Greco, Lynne Habershaw, Sue Pillsbury, Linda Quinn, JoAnn Ruppert, Jane Venditto, and Lois Whitman. Thank you to all our counters for their dedication to this important ministry!

If anyone has questions, comments, or concerns about the finances or financial reports of the church, please do not hesitate to contact me at any time.

Bob Bickerstaff
Treasurer
