The Truth Shall Make You Free
(John 8:32)

We are Christians proclaiming the Gospel of Jesus Christ who worship in the Anglican tradition. Church of The Apostles is a member of the Conservative Congregational Christian Conference.
The Annual Meeting of the Corporation
The Fourth Sunday after the Epiphany
January 29, 2012
1:00 p.m.
(In the Church Sanctuary following Sunday Brunch)

The Annual Meeting of The Canterbury Mission Society is also scheduled for January 29, 2012, at 1:00 p.m., and will coincide with The Annual Meeting of the Corporation.

The Ministry of the Laity

“The ministry of lay persons is to represent Christ and his Church; to bear witness to him wherever they may be; and, according to the gifts given them, to carry on Christ’s work of reconciliation in the world; and to take their place in the life, worship, and governance of the Church.”

(An Outline of the Faith commonly called the Catechism The Book of Common Prayer, p. 855)
A Note from the Treasurer

Once again God has blessed us with favorable finances at Church of The Apostles. By mid December, it was clear that we would end the year with a substantial budget surplus, and the Church Council decided to use the majority of the extra money to provide additional funding for our Outreach Fund and Capital Reserve Savings Fund. After transferring an extra $3,000.00 into each of those funds, we are still left with a General Fund surplus of $1,588.68 to carry forward into 2012. As always, we thank you for your committed giving, but above all we praise God for his continued faithfulness as we endeavor to do his work in the world.

The Budget for 2012

The 2012 operating budget for Church of The Apostles is presented below. The Church Council approved this budget on November 17th, accepting without change the budget proposal prepared in October by a Finance Committee consisting of Superintendent Galloway, Treasurer Bob Bickerstaff, Elder Rob Geoffrey, Archdeacon Tom Bourn, Deacon Cathy Morgan, Financial Secretary Barbara Battey, and Active Members Jodie Antonelli and Linda Quinn. The budget projects an increase of about 5.5 percent in income from pledges and weekly offerings, which both the Finance Committee and Church Council felt was a realistic figure. If you have any questions or comments about the budget, please contact Bob Bickerstaff (828-7216), and be sure to attend the Annual Meeting on January 29th to hear a more detailed report on the finances of our Congregation.

“This is the LORD’s doing and it is marvelous in our eyes.” — (Psalm 118:23)
Reflections on Advent

“No one knows about that day or hour, not even the angels in heaven, nor the Son, but only the Father. Be on guard! Be alert! You do not know when that time will come.” (Mark 13:32-33)

Sometimes we become so focused on shopping, sports, weather, and ourselves that we forget what Advent means. I’d like to share with you what was taking place in our Sunday school classes during the four weeks of Advent.

To begin with, over sixty toys were placed under the Giving Tree to help the Artic Mission Toy Days project. Next, I saw numerous cards and Christmas ornaments being created to be given to residents at our new nursing home ministry at West View Nursing Home, and to be sent to soldiers from the West Warwick area. More Christmas cards were sent to members of our Congregation. All were beautifully created with love by our Sunday school students.

Next, many joined their voices with family, friends, and members of the Riverpoint Advent Christian Church singing Christmas carols at the gazebo in the Village of Arctic, at the Artic Mission and around several neighborhood homes in the Village. Many thanks to all who sang and to Harry for his delicious hot cocoa.

Lastly, under the small Christmas tree in the Narthex, tiny boxes were placed next to a sign asking, “What gift would you give Jesus?” This is what Christmas is truly about - His birthday - His coming again. The students have been focusing on this. Take a moment, open their tiny boxes (their names are on the top) and read what our children have written. Then ask yourself, “What gift would I give Him?”

God’s Blessings in this New Year 2012,

A Reflection on the Epiphany ...

“When [the wise men] saw the star, they rejoiced exceedingly with great joy. And going into the house they saw the child with Mary his mother, and they fell down and worshiped him.

Then, opening their treasures, they offered him gifts, gold and frankincense and myrrh.”

(Matthew 2:10-11)

Thoughts to Ponder ...

If it happened here as it happened there;
If it happened now as it happened then;
Who would see the miracle?
Who would bring gifts?
Who would take them in?
My Dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ,

“So then, as we have opportunity, let us do good to everyone, and especially to those who are of the household of faith.”

(Galatians 6:10)

Give God the glory! Ring In The New Year 2012 sponsored by United In Faith was a glorious gathering of the household of faith in the Pawtuxet Valley. Approximately 135 people came together in Christian fellowship to give glory to God for the year past and to greet the New Year with great hope and anticipation of God’s promises to us.

I was overwhelmed, as I always am, by God’s wonderful grace and by the tremendous support of the United In Faith vision at Church of The Apostles. Thank you to each and every one who helped to make Ring In The New Year 2012 such a success and to all those who participated in the evening’s festivities.

Together, to the glory of God, we raised almost $1,100.00 for the “Galatians 6:10 Project” to develop an emergency response center for participating churches and their members, “the household of faith,” in the Valley. Church of The Apostles was selected to be the hub church for this project. The first phase of the project will be to buy a generator.

I look forward with great anticipation to serving in 2012 and wish you all a Joyous and Blessed New Year in our Lord Jesus Christ.

Grace and peace be with you,

Cathy Morgan

“We thank you, Lord, for minds to think, and hearts to love, and hands to serve.”

(The Book of Common Prayer, p. 837)
CareNet Rhode Island

“The LORD your God will make you abundantly prosperous in all the work of your hand, in the fruit of your womb and in the fruit of your cattle and in the fruit of your ground. For the LORD will again take delight in prospering you, as he took delight in your fathers, when you obey the voice of the LORD your God to keep his commandments and his statues that are written in the Book of the Law, when you turn to the LORD your God with all your heart and with all your soul.”

(Deuteronomy 30:9-10)

Several weeks ago (December 11, 2011) we invited the Executive Director of CareNet Rhode Island, Rachel Nguyen, to speak to our Congregation during the 10:30 a.m. service about the challenges facing this Christian pregnancy resource center in our state. Ms. Nguyen passionately explained to our Congregation the dire statistics on abortion in Rhode Island and why it is the Church’s responsibility to take a stand against it. Rachel challenged us as individuals and as a Congregation to answer the call.

Each week in our Sunday liturgy, during The Prayers of the People, we pray: “Bless and guide our President and our Governor; give wisdom to all in authority; and direct our country and every nation in the ways of justice and peace. May we honor one another and seek the common good as we promote the right to life, the dignity, and the freedom of every person, from conception to final breath.” It is not just the responsibility of our President, Governor, or those in public authority to take on the cause for the protection of life, it is, in fact, our own!

If you were touched by Rachel’s visit and have an interest in this ministry and/or would like more information, please contact Deacons Kathy Kettle or Cathy Morgan. The center is located at 433 Elmwood Avenue, in Providence.
The following notes were received from Rachel Nguyen after her visit with us on December 11th:

Dear Cathy [Morgan],
I can’t even begin to tell you how touched I was by the extraordinary outpouring of generosity at your church. Thank you, again, for the portable playpens. I know that our clients will be able to make good use of them. I also wanted to share how excited our pregnant clients were to be able to ‘shop’ from all the great new things Church of The Apostles donated last week. What a blessing! It was very clear how much care went into the surprise baby shower. Thank you so much!
In His Service,
Rachel

Dear Mark [Galloway],
What a pleasure it was to speak at the Church of The Apostles yesterday. I was truly touched by how gracious everyone was. We were overwhelmed with the amazing outpouring of gifts for our clients today.
I pray that God continues to bless your Congregation and thank you for your diligent support of life.
In His service,
Rachel

A Prayer for the Future of the Human Race

O God our heavenly Father, you have blessed us and given us dominion over all the earth: Increase our reverence before the mystery of life; and give us new insight into your purposes for the human race, and new wisdom and determination in making provision for its future in accordance with your will; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

(The Book of Common Prayer, p. 828)
Gaining Health!

A little goes a long way when it comes to weight. Research has shown that losing 10% of your body weight, or less, can have big payoffs for your health. Lowering body weight can: reverse or prevent diabetes; lower blood pressure, cholesterol, and triglyceride levels; lower your risk for stroke, heart disease, arthritis, and cancer; and improve sleep apnea and other sleep problems, along with helping you look good and feel better about yourself.

As you well know, there is a connection between our health and our nutrition. Nutrition is simply the science of food, the nutrients in foods and how the body uses those nutrients. Each day people learn about nutrition from the television, newspapers, radio, books and the Internet. Sorting out the truth can be challenging to even the savvy consumer.

Do you ever think about why you eat? The easy answers are because you are hungry, tired and your stomach is rumbling. Sometimes you might also eat because you are bored; sad or happy; just because it’s lunchtime; or because that chocolate-covered donut looks so good. Those are some of the emotional and physical reasons why you eat, but do you ever put much thought into why your body needs food? Not just any food, by the way, but healthy, good-for-you food? Why is good nutrition important?

On Saturday, February 4, 2012 from 10:00 a.m. to 12 noon, the Health & Wellness Ministry with the assistance of Anna Bertorelli, a Registered Dietitian from Hasbro Children’s Hospital, is offering a Nutrition Workshop called “Gaining Health.” The goal is to provide you with the knowledge and skills to make good food choices and to give you the tools to start moving closer to a “healthier you.”

What’s your New Year’s Resolution? You can make this year of your life (2012) a healthier one. It is important to take an honest look at your health and dietary habits in order to set goals for your health and diet.

Study Opportunities ...

BASIC CHRISTIANITY

God has created. God has spoken. God has acted. These statements of God’s initiative summarize the message of the whole of Scripture. This study guide deals with the second and third actions of God, because basic Christianity begins with the historical figure of Jesus Christ. If God has acted, his noblest act is the redemption of the world through Jesus Christ.

God has spoken and acted in Jesus Christ. He has said something. He has done something. This means that Christianity is not just pious talk. It is neither a collection of religious ideas nor a catalog of rules. It is not primarily an invitation to us to do anything; it is supremely a declaration of what God has done in Christ for human beings like ourselves. (From the introduction of “Christ, Basic Christianity,” the workbook for the study series.)

A six session course in basic Christianity will be offered to all interested persons beginning on Thursday, January 26th, at 7:00 p.m. in the Church. There will be a sign-up sheet available in the Narthex for those who wish to enroll. Each session will be one and a half to two hours in length. A workbook and a textbook, “Basic Christianity” by John Stott will be given to each participant. You are welcome to bring your Bible, but all the study passages we will be using are printed in the workbooks. Please speak with Archdeacon Tom Bourn (401-294-4186 or tbourn8@cox.net) with any questions about the course.

Attention Ladies! On Thursday, January 26th at 10:00 a.m., there will be an informational meeting for any women interested in taking part in a daytime study group. It is our vision that this multi-generational group will offer an opportunity for women (with or without children) to gather during the day to study the Word of God either in the form of a Bible study or other Christian book study. We will meet at Kerri McMahon’s home at 141
Colvintown Road in Coventry. We love children and invite your child to come with you as we discuss logistics of conducting the course. For further information, or if you are interested in a daytime study but cannot make this meeting, please contact Deacon Kathy Kettle at 573-0773.

The CCCC Women’s Retreat will be offered at the Holiday Inn, Tewksbury, MA, March 9-10, 2012. The conference speaker is Dr. Donna Petter, Associate Professor of Old Testament and Director of the Hebrew Language Program at Gordon-Conwell Theological Seminary. The topic is House Beautiful: “And in his temple all cry ‘Glory!’” (Psalm 29:9). Most women dream of having a beautiful home. Much effort and planning go into making our earthly house a home. This conference seeks to inspire and encourage women to explore what the Bible has to say about houses not made with human hands! Registrations are due by February 15th. Forms and further information are available on the table in the Narthex or you may speak with Barbara Bickerstaff or Deacon Kathy Kettle.

The women’s Bible study, Joyful Women, continues to meet on the first and third Saturdays of the month at 8:00 a.m. We are currently working our way through the book “Crazy Love” by Francis Chan. All are welcome to join us (whether or not you have read the book). For further information, please speak with Barbara Bickerstaff.

Men’s Fellowship Breakfast

February 11th
7:30 a.m. to 9:00 a.m.

Please join with your brothers in Christ to share food, fellowship and the Word of God. Bring a friend!

For further information, please speak with Deacon Bill Sexton (726-4549).
Every financial commitment made to the work of the Church’s ministry represents the generosity of her members giving it as well as their personal commitment to follow Jesus Christ as their Lord and Savior.

Jesus never said, “Tithe.” Rather, he said he owned everything. As we give of Jesus’ belongings, we are entrusted with even more to give.

“Everyone to whom much was given, of him much will be required, and from him to whom they entrusted much, they will demand the more.”

To the Church of The Apostles Congregation:
Your kindness means so much! I am very grateful for all your prayers for my daughter Julie and for myself. It means a great deal to me.

Sincerely,
Audrey Burdick

To all of my sisters and brothers,
Thank you so very much for your gifts and prayers, and especially all your love. Thank you to Sandy [Restall] for stopping in and sharing all the prayers and Church Notes. That was kind of her. Bless her heart!

I just wanted to say Merry Christmas to all of my sisters and brothers. Keep the faith. Trust in the Lord. God is good. I am doing fine and will see you soon. I love all of you!

“Without faith it is impossible to please Him, for he who comes to God must believe that He is, and that He is a rewarder of those who diligently seek Him” (Hebrews 11:6).
